THE WEATHER. Partly cloudy tonight. Cloudy tomorrow and warmer.

CHARLEROI EASILY BEATS CALIFORNIA

Formally Starts Its Way to the W. P. I. A. L. Championship Saturday By Defeating California Overwhelmingly—23-0

BIG OUTPOURING OF FANS

Probably Greatest Demonstration of Charleroi And California Fans Ever Witnessing a Football Game In Charleroi—Estimated 10,000 Present

California with twenty-four coaches in their special train came in determined to lower Charleroi's colors. They were doomed to disappointment.

Charleroi has been working up to this game as the most important on the schedule and when the whistle blew for the kick-off eleven Red and Black fighting wolves took the field. California was without the services of "Bus" Edwards but Edwards could not make up twenty-three points. Parkinson played a fine game for the losers but his offensive play was limited to two first downs. Charleroi benefitting from a twenty-four hour sojourn in the country looked like the finest smoothest working combination seen around this valley in many years.

It was one of the biggest days between Charleroi and California in an athletic way that has ever been held in the upper Monongahela valley.

The arrangements that California made for the Charleroi-California game were wonderful. The business men of the Normal town closing up their business during the hours from 2 to 6 in the afternoon, and the Pennsylvania railroad making arrangements to run a special train, with the regular train which comes down at 2:21 bringing the crowd at 2:21 made it a more successful day. The weather man was considerate, and helped along the lines of the general preparation of both California and Charleroi managements.

At 1 in the afternoon the parade formed at the Pennsylvania Railroad station, and the band engaged by the business men of Charleroi enlivened until it was time for the parade to start for the Ball park. That in itself was a wonderful achievement; it showed that Charleroi was behind its High School team.

The Fire department as it always does, was in the regular line of duty, offered its services to the occasion in a general way and during the afternoon helped much to take care of the immense crowd and outside visitors who visited Charleroi on this occasion.

It is estimated that there were fully 10,000 people at the game, and to all the civic organizations, the police force and the Boy Scouts, every one contributed to help enhance its felicitous features.

One of the big things that was mentioned Saturday by the citizens of the town, was the fact that there was not

ATHLETIC BODY IS DEEPLY APPRECIATIVE

To those who so liberally donated their time in raising funds and to each subscriber for the band at Saturday's game, to the Burgess and local police force, to the Charleroi branch, the High School Athletic Association wishes to express its thanks and deep appreciation for their loyal efforts. The real loyal response of the large body of citizens at Saturday's game was highly commendable and is not overlooked by the Athletic Council. It is just this kind of response that makes it easy for those directly in charge to "carry on."

Bentleyville To Observe; Hughes In The Address

The American Legion Post at Bentleyville, with the aid of Burgess I. N. South and the Chamber of Commerce has completed plans for the observance of Armistice Day. The Finleyville band and the Bentleyville Fife and Drum corps will furnish the music. All organizations, lodges and societies of Bentleyville will participate in the parade which will form at Ellsworth and march to the south end of Main street, Bentleyville, and then to the Majestic theatre.

program will be carried out. District Attorney Howard W. Hughes will deliver a patriotic address. The Bentleyville post considers itself fortunate in securing Attorney Hughes as a speaker. Post Commander F. O. Crompton will preside and J. Russ[illegible] Legion chaplain will offer the invocation. At 11 o'clock a silent prayer will be offered for 30 seconds in memory of those who made the great sacrifice.

At 2:30 Bentleyville High School football team will meet the Charleroi High reserves. A special matinee for school children at Majestic theatre has been arranged. In the evening the Legion will present a picture "A Man of Action," with Douglas MacLean starring.

Father And Son Banquet On Friday

Two very interesting and well attended services were held at the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday. In the morning the church was crowded with the members of the church and Sunday school to listen to a special sermon on "Sin and Salvation," which was for the young people. More than a hundred of the members of the Junior department of the Sunday school attended and sat as a body. It is planned to make this a regular part of the program for the second Sunday of each month. [illegible] large audience listened to the sermon on "Masterless Men."

On Wednesday evening of this week the pastor will deliver an illustrated address on Persia. He will use 78 beautiful slides to tell the story of the life of the people of that land.

Friday evening at 6:30 more than one hundred and fifty fathers and sons will attend a banquet in their honor to be served by the Ladies Aid society of the church. A fine program has been prepared, which will make this one of the most enjoyable events of the season. Rev. W. P. McConkey, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Washington, will bring the message. Be sure to get your tickets at George Leith's store before Wednesday evening.

EARLY DAYS ON THE RIVER RECALLED

Old River Man Calls Attention to the Changes That the Mutations of Time Have Wrought In Monongahela Steamboating

NEW CRAFTS NOW FACTOR

Business Conditions And Trend of Latter Days Demand Them —All-Steel Coal Barges Have Wellnigh Supplanted the Old Wooden Boats

To a casual observer and one who can look back to the sixties and early seventies the construction of steamboats on the local rivers has taken a stride forward which cannot help but be noticed by old river men, who were active in those early days of navigation. Of late years the larger firms, owning large coal holdings and operating as many as from five to a dozen first-class steamers, have entered into a competitive stage as to up-to-date and modern transportation facilities. One only has to look back and recall such diminutive tugs as the old Clipper, Barnhill, Seven Sons, Hunter No. 2, J. D. Johnson, Wild Boy, Hawk, and the Lark, along with many others who all did, but in accordance with the progress of the times—say fifty years ago, but the times and great progress so rapidly advancing all along this our great Monongahela river demanded much and varied improvements which the business profession were quick to notice and hastened to supply the demand with much more modern and up-to-date appliances among the class of old steamers above mentioned no one ever thought of steering a boat with a big tow by steam. But this was overcome by the introduction of steam and compressed air steering rigging, the former which soon supplanted the latter as being impractical. Then the shipping-up rigging, which reversed the engines from a forward to a backward movement and aided the engineer to reverse both engines at once. This was considered a great innovation and it was indeed so, but now that work is also done by steam while the engineer can even sit down at his post and operate these great engines of the present day where in the halcyon days of yore he was compelled to walk from one side of the boat to the other at the sound of the gong from the pilot house.

It was during these early days of steamboating that the greater part of the thousands and millions of bushels of coal were shipped to lower river and southern markets and then only when a flood stage in the rivers existed, which was very frequently of but a few days duration.

With the building of iron and steel mills and the sugar and cotton industry farther south it became apparent that larger and more powerful steamers were needed and the coal shippers realizing this fact began to

Two Washington county residents were instantly killed, a Milwaukee man fatally injured and a Waynesburg man sustained serious injuries in automobile accidents within a few hours of each other Sunday.

William Meehan of New Eagle, and John O. Geho, of Centerville, were run down by passing cars while walking along the road. George Killing of Milwaukee, died shortly after his car ran into the ditch and struck a telegraph pole near Fayette City and Peter Huff, of Waynesburg, sustained a fractured skull in the same accident.

Centerville, Nov. 9—John O. Geho, aged 72 years, of this place was instantly killed tonight at 7:30 o'clock when struck by an automobile on the road near the Vesta No. 6 mine. The car which hit him did not stop but left his body lying in the road.

Dr. George Hudson of Brownsville, coming along the road shortly after found the body and took it to the Kissinger mortuary, Brownsville, where on examination it was found that the man's skull had been fractured, both legs broken and the body terribly bruised.

The driver of the car which struck him is not known, but state police are making an effort to locate the car.

BAZAAR AT LEGION ROOMS

With the American Legion rooms of Charleroi Post No. 22 decorated beautifully all is in readiness for big things according to the Auxiliary, who has been working for weeks preparing for this week, at which time it is to stage its monster bazaar.

This evening will be inaugurated with a Bridge and 500 card party, and Mrs. Mary Brady, chairlady of this feature, has selected a number of beautiful favors.

The Legion rooms will be open to everybody and it is hoped that the Auxiliary will have a large patronage for its very clever display of many varied and beautiful articles.

There will be a special attraction each evening and it will not only be interesting but beneficial, to everyone to pay the "Dugout" a visit every evening of the week.

Post And Citizens To Celebrate At Monongahela Tomorrow

Charleroi Post of the American Legion, with a complement of probably 150 men, and a band; with the Charleroi Fire department in line, and citizens of the borough in great numbers, to attend the Armistice day celebration at Monongahela, Charleroi promises to be depopulated. The Charleroi Fire department has decorated its finest truck "most beautifully, the most gorgeous thing I ever saw," in the opinion of a local lady, and if the department is not slated for the first prize or a prize, if given, its admirers here will be greatly disappointed as will the firemen themselves.

Frank Downer Post No. 302, of the American Legion, under whose auspices the celebration is held, has worked out the various details of the celebration, and among the features will be the military band concert, a fine professional football game by the two valley contenders for the championship, and a battalion review at the new high school athletic field.

EDITOR GIBSON TURNS IN "30"

William George Gibson, aged 52 years, erstwhile editor of the Monongahela Republican, died at his home at New Eagle last night of heart trouble and general debility. Born at Monongahela, March 10, 1872, Mr. Gibson was a son of George W. Gibson of New Eagle.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Susie DeWalt Gibson, Mr. Gibson leaves four sons, Eugene, William, Jr., Theodore and David, all at home; four brothers, Noah and Harry of New Eagle, Benjamin of Monongahela, and Clyde of Smick, and three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Sargent, of Fredericktown; Mrs. John Smith of New Eagle, and Mrs. Joseph Rinehart, also of New Eagle.

DAUGHTERS IN SECOND MEETING OF THE YEAR

The Monongahela Valley Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the second meeting of the year with the California members in the library of the California Normal school Saturday afternoon, with one hundred members and guests present. Miss Margaret Laird, regent, of this place, presided.

"The American Indian," is the subject of study for the year and the California daughters had a very interesting program prepared Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mytinger, teachers of public speaking in the Normal school, assisted by students of the school, presented "Hiawatha" in pantomime. This was followed by a moving picture entitled "Historical Pageant Depicting Scenes in the Monongahela Valley," presented at California Normal in June, 1923. The prologue was read by the author, Miss Ellen Reiss of California. Mrs. Cora Williams Hines, accompanied by Mrs. Ora Harrison Ritter, of Brownsville, delightfully entertained during the program with Indian music. The library was artistically decorated with autumn leaves, Indian blankets, Indian pictures and Indian relics.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Latimer of Monongahela City.

MONONGAHELA MAN ACCUSED OF MURDER

Walter J. Hank, aged 50, of Monongahela City, was ordered remanded to the Allegheny county jail today in Pittsburgh on a charge of murder in connection with the death of William Meehan, 56 of Axelton, who was instantly killed last night at 6:30 o'clock, when struck by the automobile driven by Hank on the new road leading to West Newton from Axelton, just across the river from Monongahela.

Meehan was walking along the road when the automobile with Hank at the wheel suddenly swerved towards him. He was killed instantly. The offending machine sped on without stopping, and Hank was later arrested in Pittsburgh. The accident occured 20 feet from the Monongahela-Axelton bridge.

WITH EXECUTION OFFICERS THINK DIRECTORATE SAFE

Barcelona, Nov. 10.— With the execution of two anarchists this morning, the police here believe they have definitely crushed a revolutionary plot against Spain's military directorate.

Seven other anarchists are held awaiting sentence and roundup of suspects continues.

Barcelona has resumed its normal quiet and police say there is no further cause for alarm.

One policeman was killed and one wounded in the fighting in which the anarchists were taken.

RIGHTS OF PEDESTRIANS.

There is record of European laws in the interests of the wealthy and powerful which required payment of fines by persons who were guilty of being knocked down or run over by carriages in the streets. There is a suggestion of a somewhat similar spirit in the announced determination of Police Commissioner Enright of New York to arrest pedestrians fine them in court, or commit them to prison, whenever they fail to obey the regulation requiring them to pass from one side of a street to the other only at crossings. "The regulation," he says "will be enforced by all the means at our command," and declares further that "the streets and sidewalks of New York must be reclaimed for business and the decent travelling public." They ought to be "reclaimed" for pedestrians, one is apt to think as one stands at Broadway and Times Square and sees the interminable stream of automobiles six or eight abreast, and the crowds of people waiting, waiting even for a brief chance to get over at the crossings themselves. Small wonder that occasionally desperate persons take their lives in their hands and run dodging and zigzagging across elsewhere.

One gets the impression that the rights still left to pedestrians are limited indeed. In the more crowded districts Commissioner Enright would not even leave them the right to loiter and look into shop windows. The New York Times asks him if some better way can not be found to "restrain jay-walking," points out that already the police have authority to disperse crowds, shows that it is not unsafe to cross at the middle of the block except in the congested regions recalls the fact that many of the run-down are school children, and sarcastically quotes a policeman. "If there are many moree pedestrians there won't be room for the automobiles!"

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

an accident, there was not a fight, there was not a thing to mar the festivities of the day.

At 1 Saturday afternoon, immediately after the arrival of the first train from California, the police formed at the Ball park under the direction of Chief of Police James A. Murphy, and the fans were taken to the field and at that time the crowd was such that it looked as if the police would have a big job on their hands, and they did. Within twenty minutes after the arrival of the first special train the ball park was a beehive, both Charleroi and California fans crowding in, and from that time on until the game started it was one continual rush to the park.

At 1:30 o'clock the student body of Charleroi High school with its cheerleaders met at the Pennsylvania railroad station. It was a wonderful demonstration. The Charleroi High school student body and cheerleaders had been criticised before for not making as big a showing at the other games in Charleroi, but Saturday proved that they are 100 per cent loyal to the local team.

During the last week the Charleroi cheerleaders and Charleroi High school has shown a wonderful improvement. The things that were demonstrated during the parade and game on Saturday showed that not only the Charleroi students, but Charleroi in general, is behind the Charleroi team to win the W. P. I. A. L. championship.

The parade in itself was a wonderful demonstration of what Charleroi can do. It showed the big man and the little man. They were all together and they were all up there to show that they appreciated the efforts of Coach Stepanian and his little band of warriors.

Coach Stepanian took the picked men of his team on Friday evening and spirited them away to an unknown stronghold, and kept them there during Friday night and Saturday morning, and it was not until five minutes before play time that he allowed his regular team to enter the field.

The Charleroi fans and California fans were all watching for the two teams to enter the field. California was first, and five minutes before play time the Charleroi second team entered the field, with their red sweaters and regular numbers. The followers of the Charleroi team knew that the 22 boys that had gone away with Coach Stepanian were not among them, and immediately afterwards, approximately three minutes to 3 o'clock, Coach Stepanian and his 22 players who had been registered to do the big work against California team were on hand amid one of the most tremendous ovations that has ever been given to any team in the Pittsburgh district.

Coach Stepanian's foresight in the handling of the Charleroi aggregation is standing out today as one of the most wonderful achievements that has ever been pulled off by any football coach. He has developed such men as Crabb, O'Brien, Paterline, Dehainent, and Crytzer. All of these men were wonderful in Saturday's game against California, and will be stonewall men in some of our colleges in after years.

The parade started at 1:30 at the Pennsylvania Railroad station, followed by thousands of fans. It marched to the ball field, where it was intended for certain notables to make speeches, but on account of the immensity of the crowd this was out of the question, so that the Charleroi fans, California fans, and rooters formed into one wonderful fellowship organization that wedged athletics in California and Charleroi together in such a way that it will prove to be one of the most pleasing events of every year to come.

On next Saturday afternoon Charleroi will play Clairton High at Charleroi, and it will be the last game in Charleroi this year.

The next big game will be between Charleroi and Donora. It will be remembered that the Donora team was the team that last year put Charleroi out of the running for the W. P. I. A. L. honors. Charleroi had won every game and all the other contending teams in the league were on an even basis and she had a wonderful chance to go to the front, but the Donora team came here and edged out a last minute touchdown, scoring seven points against Charleroi team.

There is no bad blood existing between Donora and Charleroi. These teams are on the most congenial terms and it is not on account of Donora putting Charleroi out of the running last year that the game has been transferred to neutral ground. It is because the Donora field which is up on Palmer park is not accessible; it is two miles out in the country and very hard for folks to get to, especially those who do not have cars, so the game has been transferred to Monessen Ball park. That game in itself will be the next big event of the football season.

Coach Stepanian's prodigies started out on the right foot early in the first quarter when they marched straight down the field from California's 49 yard line for the first touchdown which was scored in exactly nine minutes. Crabb made a beautiful effort on this marker diving over the line. The play brought much favorable comment from the fans. He added the extra point with a placement kick. California received and were held on the 35 yard line for three downs. Stewart punted and here Charleroi started another march down the field. A nine yard gain off-tackle by Crabb a 6 yard plunge by Paterline through the center of the line a forward pass with Shigets on the receiving end and a bullet like plunge by Crabb scored the second touchdown. The extra point was missed.

A [illegible] spirit by California near the end of the second half brought the ball to the 50 yard line from deep in their own territory. Half time found Charleroi 13 points to the good and still going strong.

The third quarter was scoreless although Charleroi was within scoring distance on two occasions. The first trip they reached the 10 yard line on straight line plunging and on the second occasion Paterline on one of his line bricking rampages broke through the weak side for a thirty yard run. This very nearly resulted in a touchdown as Parkinson was the only man to be taken out.

Paterline broke loose through center and placed the ball in the danger zone after a pretty 30 yard run. After two short gains Crabb dropped back and booted a pretty 30 yard drop kick making the score 16-0.

In the last quarter California trying desperately to get the scoring column opened up with a series of forward passes which failed. Stewart punted out of bounds on California's 39 yard line. Two ten yard gains by Crabb another forward pass to Shigets for a 5 yard gain and a 5 yard buck by the hard hitting Paterline gave Charleroi its last touchdown. Crabb made the extra point with a placement kick. Here Coach Stepanian put in his second team who held the visitors until the whistle ended the game.

To choose stars of the game from the spectators point of view is not hard for Crabb Paterline and Shigets when receiving forward passes were outstanding. However O'Brien's leadership and judgment in selecting plays the play of the ends, Anthony and Shepard. John's strong defense [illegible] Crytzer's backing of the line must not be overlooked.

Parkinson for the losers played brilliantly on the defense and never gave up a second. Stewart with one exception turned out some fine punting.

All Charleroi is still singing praises to this brilliant 1924 team and to Coach Stepanian for his successful efforts in bringing a green line along to the point where they function smoothly into a unit of seven charging fighting wolves. Hats off to the Red and Black aggregation of 1924.

NOTES OF THE DAY

Well—we won!

All honor to California fans!

It was a wonderful day for California and Charleroi.

Wonder what our second team will do out at Bentleyville tomorrow?

The next big game will be at Monessen between Charleroi and Donora. Beat Clairton.

A real day a real crowd, two real teams and real pep was the lot of those fans who attended the game Saturday.

There are some people in this town who don't think Coach Stepanian knows football. Those fellows were not there Saturday.

An optimist—Any football fans who passed up the Charleroi-California game in favor of either the Pitt-Geneva or the W. & J.-Waynesburg contests.

Lock Four—Former home of Brumbaugh last year's Carnegie Tech star, also the home of Paterline, Charleroi High School star. They both can plunge a line.

One for the cross-word puzzle artists. A word of five letters third letter A, the name of an example of the group Crustacea on the football field acts more like an eel. Good work "Chuck."

Shigets will never run short of material for bed time stories after recalling his efforts in Saturday's contest. "Glesk" was on the receiving end of three forwards and made good gains each time.

Monongahela beat Bentleyville 34-0, but that was their first team. Charleroi is going out there with their second team on Bentleyville's own home ground. But that's all right! Stepanian will be along.

When Willie Davies fights Hughie Manson at Homestead the fur is sure to fly, because Manson on Friday night trimmed Willie Davies' sparring partner at McKeesport after the third attempt and got away with the decision.

Various estimates of the size of the crowd have been made. Over six thousand can be accounted for through the gates. A conservative estimate would add two thousand to the original number. Interest in high school football certainly is not waning.

"Bob" Thorne, Athletic Director of Grove City College spent Friday afternoon and evening with the squad and was on the Charleroi bench during the game. The boys were greatly impressed with the famous basketball tutor and are loud in their praise of him. Thorne is a close friend of Coach Stepanian's.

There is just one thing the Charleroi Police department can do. They can handle a big crowd easily. From Chief Murphy down all the boys worked together and it is wonderful to think that during the whole day there was not an accident and not an arrest. If any person says that Charleroi has not efficiency, ask us!

There are some of those down around New York that don't believe Cuddy DeMarco can fight, but they are going to get a lesson on the 16th of November. Cuddy is on the road every day and the local boy was never in better shape than he is right now, and he will give a good account of himself in his first Eastern fight.

The Pittsburgh Post writer takes a fling at the Charleroi Fire department in his writeup of Saturday's football game. Let us say to the writer of the Pittsburgh Post, whoever he is, that the chief of the Charleroi Fire department is not allowing the town to be unprotected. If the Post does not believe this, tell him to ask the Pennsylvania Underwriters Association what the fire loss is in Charleroi the last five years. While Chief Lowstuter loaned several of his men to the police department to help out in the handling of the huge crowd, he did not leave Charleroi unprotected.

The most manifest sign of wisdom is continued cheerfulness.

Give the man with the clammy mitt the go by. His brain is usually as wabbly as his mitt.

Fashion Note.

Skirts are to be shorter. But be calm—they will still be skirts.

A Rule of Life.

If you think a man's a fool.
Tell him so!
Though 'twill peeve him, as a rule,
Tell him so!
Keep this up awhile, old cock:
Never boost, but always knock.
Till someone removes your block,
Tell him so!

Try This Same Time.

A very successful way of making a husband stay at home at night is to stay there with him.

Self praise is no recommendation.

Whatever may be said against Turkey, it must be admitted the courts of that country have sensible men as judges. One judge has decided that poker is not a game of chance. The judge is absogoldarnlutely correct.

HEAVYWENIGHTS IN SEMI-FINAL ADD TO STRONG PROGRAM

In these days of enlightened fighters one hardly knows what to expect when they clash, despite the "form" record they may carry around with them. Promoters and spectators alike take chances with every card, and just every so often one turns out as anticipated. Tonight Motor Square Garden, after rather a bad start, will put on a card which on paper looks like a whiz. Whether it will be or not depends entirely on the actions of the eight fighters, six of them making their Garden debut.

To top off the card there are Jack Zivic of Lawrenceville and Nate Goldman of Philadelphia. Anyone following the boxing game knows what these two should do. Zivic, for a long time, ranked as the leading lightweight contender in the country. In fact, he pressed his case so vigorously last summer that the weekly performance of meeting tonnotchers took the edge off his style. Jack since has sensed the folly of such stunts and tonight, making a weight which will give him full strength and natural ability, will try his stuff against one of the recent phenoms of the sport, Nate Goldman, of Philadelphia.

300 H. S. STUDENTS MAKE THE WELKIN RING

Three hundred High School students, inclusive of the girls, paraded the streets of the borough this morning, and their cheers of "Charleroi," "Red and Black," et cetera, made the welkin ring.

This victory of Charleroi H. S. over what was presumed to be their most formidable rival, California, is the most popular, doubtless, of any ever recorded in the annals of football as appertains to Charleroi. By grace of Superintendent Pollock, the students were given a portion of the forenoon "off" to give vent to pentup enthusiasm—which refused to subside.

Mementoes of Ancient Carthage in England

The ruined temple at Virgina Wetu, Surrey, England, is always somewhat of a mystery to visitors to that beauty spot which was at one time a dreary swamp.

Standing in a romantic glen, its columns look as though they had been undisturbed for 2,000 years. The fact is that the temple has been in its present position about a century. Its original site was ancient Carthage.

On several of the stones are inscriptions. One, in Greek, on an altar stone, tells how Publius Aurelius dedicated it to Jupiter and to the other gods worshiped in the temple. Others are written in Latin. One of these reads: "Marcus Julius erected this to his most beloved wife Domitia Rogata, who lived twenty-three years."

At one time a fine group of ancient Greek statuary stood near these columns from Carthage. When William IV opened these lovely grounds to the public, however, these statues were so shamefully mutilated by visitors that they were completely ruined, and the public were again excluded until the reign of Queen Victoria.

Radio for Beginners

No matter what the name of the circuit advertised, it will fall into one of the classes named below. There are only four types of circuits. All of them are good today. The number of tubes given are minimum and maximum for loud speaker reception on stations within, say, 300 miles. It takes the best sets to qualify on the minimum number of tubes. Any set ought to qualify on the maximum. The number of tubes determines the cost of upkeep. Like cylinders in a car, four is standard.

NAME	REMARKS	SETS WE SELL
RADIO FREQUENCY	The choice here is between "neutralized" sets or "stabilized"sets. They should be one or the other. The action of both is similar, the latter usually being louder but harder to tune. An extra tube is better than one tube doing double duty. Neutralized sets no good on loop.	ATWATER KENT FRIED-EISEMANN THE WARE FRESHMAN THERMIODYNE
REFLEX	The most fickle set but most economical. Distance is certain, but volume depends on location. Each tube does double duty, but in the best sets an extra amplifying tube is found. Good on loop.	RADIOLA X REGENOFLEX
REGENERATIVE	The old standby but extremely difficult to tune compared with radio-frequency sets. Economical, good volume, and good distance. With a sensitive tube as detector is less economical, harder to handle, inclines to squeal, but gets there. No good on loop.	THE UNICO CROSLEY ZENITH RADIOLA III
SUPERHETERODYNE	Does not give the results such a lot of tubes should give in the hands of the average user. Good on a loop, with lots of volume and to handle and certain in results.	RADIO CORPORATION

Swedish Forests at Par After Thousand Years

Stockholm.—Sweden's work of forest conservation has managed to keep the lead in the neck-to-neck race with the rapidly increasing output of industrial products, according to a governmental report, in which the statement is made that Sweden has "an inexhaustible gold mine in her forests."

This assurance is regarded as of great importance to the nation, since about 60 per cent of its exports consist of lumber, wood pulp, paper and other forest products. In 1923, these exports alone amounted to a value of about $183,000,000, and in the 12 months ended last June upward of $19,000,000 of Swedish wood pulp was shipped to paper mills in the United States.

The forests in Sweden which have been drawn upon for commercial purposes for at least 1,000 years, now cover about 52 per cent of the total land area of the country, and consist principally of spruce and pine.

SCIENTIST FINDS STRANGE BEASTS

Unknown Species Unearthed in Mongolia.

Erga, Mongolia.—Prof. Peter Kozloff, Russian explorer, has discovered near here an enormous number of skeletons of hitherto unknown animals and many human remains which lead him to believe that Mongolia may have been the birthplace of man and the point of origin of a considerable part of the animal and reptile world.

Among the fossils already unearthed by Professor Kozloff and his assistants are those of 25 quadrupeds of undesignated species, 75 birds of varying sizes, 100 reptiles, snakes and fishes and more than 1,000 insects of giant size.

Professor Kozloff last June discovered several remarkable tombs near here belonging to the Chinese emperors and princes who ruled Mongolia at a time antedating the pharaoh Tut-Ankh Amen of Egypt. It will also be remembered that Prof. Roy Chapman Andrews of the American Museum of Natural History, New York city, startled the scientific world last year by discovering nests of dinosaur eggs and showed that the central Asian plateau is a paleontological garden of Eden.

Kozloff also found in one of the royal tombs bricks of compressed tea and grains of wheat still quite fit for human consumption, despite the fact that they have lain in the tombs many thousands of years.

In another section of this district Professor Kozloff excavated the grave of a woman of the nobility, containing a number of bronze articles of exquisite craftsmanship and several silk tapestries of superb texture which depict Greek and Roman figures on horseback.

The nature of his discoveries is so important that the Russian scientist has decided to remain in Mongolia indefinitely, postponing until next year his expedition into Tibet, to resume exploration work in the forgotten city of Kharakhoto, which he unearthed some years ago. Three archeologists and biologists are now en route here from Leningrad to assist Professor Kozloff.

Strange Kind of Worm Can Live Only in Ice

Tacoma, Wash.—A species of worm that lives only in the ice and cannot withstand even the heat of a human hand, has been found and photographed by a scientific expedition that recently went into the Olympic mountains.

The ice on Dodwell Rixon pass in the Olympics was found literally alive with these worms. They are black, thin and about half an inch long. When the sun is out they crawl into the interior of the ice, where the temperature is lower. Scientists with the party said that so far as they knew these worms never had been found before in the United States.

While the worms were photographed, it was impossible to get any of them out of the mountains alive. When the ice surrounding them begins to melt, they die immediately. What they live on is still a mystery.

Find Stone Nursing Bottle Used by Romans

Folkstone, England.—Proof that babies of the Roman expansion era were accustomed to the luxury of the nursing bottle has been found during excavating on the site of an ancient Roman city near Folkstone. The archeologists have unearthed the nipple end of a baby's bottle made of stone and of a shape identical with the latest in nursing bottles.

Buoy Travels 8700 Miles

Washington.—Life buoy No. 9 broke loose from its moorings in the Indio channel of the Plata river, Argentina, on July 3, 1918. It was recovered by Australian authorities about 100 miles north of Freemantle, West Australia, on June 29, 1923. The drift was across the whole Indian ocean, a total distance by the shortest route of 8,700 miles.

In Society's Realm

With the bride's brother officiating the Rev. John Gura of Johnstown, recently ordained, the St. Cyril and Methodius church of Tenth street was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning at 7:45 o'clock when Miss Anna Gura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gura of Tenth street, became the bride of Steve Sima, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sima, Sr., of Fallowfield avenue. The bride was prettily gowned in white canton crepe and silk tulle veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The attendants were Miss Kathryn Sima, sister of the groom, Miss Mary Gura, sister of the bride, Joe Mudrack and Matthew Gura, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gura left for a short wedding trip to New York city. Upon their return they will reside in Fallowfield avenue.

EARLY DAYS ON RIVER RECALLED

build larger and larger boats with increased power and greater carrying facilities and it was then that the Tom Dodsworth, John H. Wood, Boaz, Ajack, Enterprise, Coal Valley and many others of like dimensions took the place of the smaller boats in the southern trade.

Then came the all-steel coal barges, which have almost supplanted the old woden boats and barges used in the coal and coke trade.

Along with their introduction and their increased dimensions it was found that the locks were inadequate for the increased trade. They in turn were rebuilt and enlarged but it was not long until those that had been built almost double the size the first ones constructed until now at one point, namely Lock No. 3, the land chamber has been so enlarged and improved that the large all-steel steamers with a combined tow of six loaded coal or coke barges may be passed at one single locking.

Then came the steel-hull steamers with wooden upper works, which at the present have been supplanted by what is known as all-steel steamboats. No wood work whatever not so much as doors or windows, except the required glass to give light.

And now in the line of vast improvements and it may be said self-competition comes the Carnegie Steel company, which has just let the contract for an all-steel towboat to surpass any of their previous efforts along steamboat construction,which at one time was thought to have reached its zenith in that industry.

The new boat is to be of the same size as the steamer John A. Wood, formerly in the Pittsburgh coal towing trade and now owned by the Standard Oil Company towing oil in the Baton Rouge and Memphis trade. The Federal Shipbuilding Company of Kearney, N. J., received the contract for the construction of the machinery and boilers, while the American Bridge Company will construct the hull at its Ambridge boatyards. After completion of the hull, it will be towed to the marine ways of the company at Coal Valley, Monongahela river, where the machinery and boilers will be installed and the general equipment added. The new boat is expected to be ready for the trade about December 1, 1925.

The dimensions of the new boat are, length on deck, 171.10½ feet; length overall, 200.1½ feet; molded width 38.10 feet; width overall, 39.11½ feet; depth of hull, 6.4½ feet. The size of the wheel will be, length 26.6 feet; diameter 24 feet, while there will be 16 buckets with a width of 38 inches. The engines of the twin tandem compound type will be 18x36x8.6. The boat will be equipped with five two flue boilers, each 40 inches in diameter, 28 feet long, while the diameter of the flues will be 15 inches each. The company intends to surpass its existing boats which are known to be among the most modern of their kind and the new addition will have the latest known improvements on board. The company which already has a fleet of 221 steel barges has contracted for an additional 34 barges and when completed will have a fleet of 235 modern cargo carrying vessels to be used in the coal, coke and steel carrying trade. The power fleet of the company consist of the H. D. Williams, William Whigham, A. O. Ackard, William G. Clyde, W. H. Clingerman, Homestead, Edgar Thomson, Clairton, Duquesne, Monitor and Kanawha, also the harbor tugs C. S. 1 and C. S. 2, while work is being pushed on the construction of the C. S. 3.

Paper Razor Strop

Ordinary newspapers folded together in a thick strip and held between wire clips make a satisfactory substitute for a regular leather razor strop according to a European inventor, Popular Mechanics Magazine reports. The ink on the paper is said to assist in giving a keen, non-pulling edge and consequently a smooth shave. A fresh strop can be prepared in a few moments and it is especially convenient for the traveler and camper.

"So you were caught red handed counterfeiting ten-dollar bills?" said the police magistrate. What have you to say for yourself?"

"I am not a malicious counterfeiter, and I should never have been arrested," replied the suspect. "I am a chemist whose interest is entirely scientific. I have been trying to make gold from less precious elements and I have only got as far as ten-dollar bills."

in the stomach is a common disorder causing much discomfort.

Gas inflates the stomach, forcing it to crowd the heart and makes it beat irregularly. The lungs are crowded and because they cannot properly expand, the patient often takes a deep breath to get enough oxygen. These and other distressing symptoms are warnings that digestion is impaired and needs attention.

Remember for every effect there is a cause. Let me explain how CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS correct the cause of Gas in the stomach.
